Winding down of business

Finansinspektionen's decision (to be announced on 18 June 2025 at 8:00 a.m.)

Finansinspektionen announces its decision that the business Intergiro Intl AB (publ) (Intergiro or the company) conducts pursuant to its authorisation to issue electronic money shall be wound down no later than 19 September 2025. However, the company may continue to perform until 19 September 2025 such activities necessary to wind down such business in an orderly fashion and in a way that mitigates the effect on the customer's customers.

While winding down such business, Intergiro may neither take on new customer relationships nor provide payment services to existing customers. Intergiro may only carry out such transactions necessary for an orderly winding down of the business, such as repayment of customer funds. Intergiro may not receive new deposits from existing customers.
